C) HOTEL STUDENT STAY

C.1 BOOKING PROCESS

A Hotel Booking for a Hotel Student Stay can be made online on the available Website or directly with the reservations department of TSH UK (e.g. by telephone or email). The Hotel Agreement is concluded by Contracting Party's acceptance of TSH UK' offer, regardless of whether TSH UK makes this offer through a Website or via email, telephone or any other means of communication. In case of an oral agreement between TSH UK and the Contracting Party such as in case of booking via telephone, TSH UK will provide the Contracting Party with a written confirmation of any such oral agreement (which includes by email).

C.2 ROOM INVENTORY CHECK PROCEDURE

Check-In room inventory check

In case of a Hotel Student Stay, the Contracting Party shall within forty-eight (48) hours after the Check-In Time perform a room inventory check or procure that the Student Guest performs this inventory check. Any missing elements or damaged items shall be indicated in writing to TSH UK within this time period of forty-eight (48) hours. If the Contracting Party is not the Student Guest, the written notification of missing items or damages can be made by the Student Guest on behalf of the Contracting Party and, in the absence of any written indication to the contrary issued by the Contracting Party within this period of forty-eight (48) hours, the notification made by the Student Guest will be deemed made on behalf of the Contracting Party. If no written notification of any missing elements or damaged items has been made to TSH UK by either the Student Guest or the Contracting Party within this period of forty-eight (48) hours starting at the Check-In Time, it shall be deemed that no such missing elements or damaged items exist, and neither the Student Guest nor the Contracting Party shall have the right to make further claims in this respect.

Check-Out room inventory check

In case of a Hotel Student Stay, on the Check-Out Date but before the Check-Out Time, TSH UK and the Contracting Party or the Student Guest shall jointly perform a room inventory check.

Any outstanding part of the Hotel Fee and/or outstanding amounts (including payments in relation to missing items and/or damages) due at any title by the Contracting Party will be deducted from the Deposit and can be claimed otherwise.

TSH UK shall repay the Deposit (or remainder thereof after a deduction pursuant to the preceding paragraph) to the Contracting Party upon Check-Out only after:

- Receiving evidence of either the Guest's deregistration from the municipality or evidence of their updated registration with the municipality (if applicable and/or upon request of TSH);
- the inventory form (i.e. describing the condition of your room) is complete; and

- The TSH Bike is returned undamaged and without any pending charges (if applicable).

TSH UK cannot process or return the Deposit until these three requirements (to the extent applicable) are fully complete. In the event that the requirement with respect to providing proof of deregistration or updated registration is applicable and is not evidenced within 6 (six) months after the Check-Out Date, the Deposit will no longer be refundable. Please note that failure to update your registration details in general may lead to an investigation by the municipality and potential fines.

The Deposit will be paid back to the account from which it was transferred to TSH UK. In the event that the Deposit repayment has failed because the bank account of the Contracting Party is no longer active, expired, is blocked, or for any other reason not working, TSH UK shall inform the Contracting Party, who shall promptly indicate another bank account to which the Deposit or remainder thereof can be repaid. TSH UK will deduct an administrative charge of £25 from the Deposit for making a new transfer.
